

Editorial

Dear Readers,

“Your articles are imprints on the sands of time of the scientific milieu. Leave the best imprint for the future”.

Warm greetings from the editorial team of JIDS. It gives me immense pleasure to write my first editorial for the journal. I would definitely try to fulfill this new task of mine as the Executive Editor to the best of my abilities. Having just taken over an established journal, we are looking forward for new research from authors especially in their early career in academics and the fresh generation scholars. I would like to explicitly acknowledge all the authors for choosing our journal for publishing their papers and putting their effort and time in making a good manuscript. I would like to assure all our readers that our consistent efforts will be aimed towards increasing the overall quality of our journal. We welcome contributions and suggestions for improvements at any time, and will endeavour to incorporate as many of them as we can. Hope every reader enjoys this issue as well as all the forthcoming issues!

With best regards,
